

HUMBERSIDE POLICE CADETS

Film ID: 3215 Year: 1970

This is a short film that shows the police cadets in Hull. The cadets exit the police station and get into a van, that has canoes on the top, as they are off for a weekend together.

A group of young men and women wearing bright yellow anoraks stand outside a building; some of them look at the camera. They all pick up ruck sacks which are piled up along the wall of the building and put them on their backs. A few other young men walk into shot carrying canoes and load them onto a trailer. On the side of the trailer is a large sign which reads 'Humberside Police Cadets'.

The group of cadets walk past a couple of men who are talking and load the ruck sacks into another trailer. A sign on the side of the trailer reads 'Police'. They all climb get into mini buses and drive off.
